02 How super works

About super

Superannuation is money you save now for when you're ready to kick back and relax in retirement. It's a long term investment and is the main way most Australians save for their retirement. Typically, eligible employees begin accruing super when they start working, as their employer is required to pay a percentage of their salary or wages into their super fund. These employer contributions are known as Superannuation Guarantee (SG). Rest is also able to receive other contributions on behalf of a member, such as voluntary contributions or the Government co-contribution.

There are caps on the amount of money that can be contributed to super without incurring additional taxes. These caps apply to both voluntary contributions and employer contributions (including SG). Contributions that come from before-tax income are called concessional contributions, while those made from after-tax income are referred to as non-concessional contributions.

There are also rules around when you can take money out of your super, like when you reach a certain age or can't work due to permanent disability, and how much you can withdraw. To find out more, including information on withdrawals from super, visit ato.gov.au/individuals/super

Choosing your fund

You generally have the option to select your preferred super fund by completing a "standard choice form". If you don't choose a fund, your employer is obligated to check with the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) whether you already have an active super fund, referred to as a "stapled super fund", that can accept your employer contributions. If you don't have an existing super fund, (for example, if this is your first job) and you don't make a choice, your employer will generally pay your super into a default MySuper product of their choice.

Importantly, there are circumstances where your conditions of employment mandate that compulsory SG contributions be directed to a specific fund.

Making contributions

Super can be a tax-effective way to save for your future thanks to government tax concessions. You can boost your super further by:

- contributing extra money from your before-tax salary, being mindful of the concessional contribution cap. For example, salary sacrifice which may even reduce your income tax;
- adding other savings (after-tax) into your Rest account - being mindful of the non-concessional contribution cap. If you do this, depending on a number of circumstances such as your income, you may even be eligible for the Government co-contribution.

If you're aged under 75, you can make or receive personal contributions and salary sacrifice contributions without having to meet a work test. If, however, you wish to claim a tax deduction for personal contributions and you're aged between 67 and 74, you'll need to meet a work test. For more details, visit rest.com.au/facts

Transferring low balances to the ATO

Each April and October, Rest is required by law to transfer inactive low-balance accounts to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). Generally, your account will be considered an inactive low-balance account and transferred to the ATO if all the following criteria are met:

- your account has no insurance cover,
- your account balance is below $6,000,
- you have not satisfied a prescribed condition of release, and
- we have not received a contribution or rollover to your account within the last 16 months.

However, your account will not be transferred to the ATO if, in the last 16 months, you have done any of the following:

- changed your investment options,
- elected to maintain insurance on the account,
- made changes to your insurance coverage,
- made or amended a binding beneficiary nomination,
- given Rest a written notice electing not to be a member of an inactive low-balance account.

Super Tip #1

Find and combine your super

In just a few steps you could avoid paying multiple fees for multiple super accounts.

You can find and combine your super in the Rest App.

Before deciding to combine your super, you should consider if Rest is right for you. You should find out about fees and costs in your other fund(s) and any benefits, such as insurance cover, that would be lost if you combine your super. Before combining your super with Rest, make sure your other fund(s) know about any contribution for which you intend to claim as a tax deduction. For more information, consider speaking with a licensed financial adviser or visit ASIC's MoneySmart website - moneysmart.com.au - for more information.

04 Risks of super

Like all investments, super has risks. To balance risk, super funds generally invest in a broad range of asset classes such as cash, debt, property and shares. Assets with the highest potential return over the long term (such as shares) may also carry the highest risk in the short term. How you invest your super depends on the level of risk you're ok with. Different strategies may carry different levels of risk, depending on the assets that make up the strategy.

Some things to keep in mind

- The value of investment options can go up and down.
- Future returns may differ from past returns.
- Returns are not guaranteed, will vary and you may lose some of your money.
- Superannuation, social security and tax laws may change in the future.
- The amount of your future superannuation savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to adequately provide for your retirement.

Other significant risks include currency fluctuations, interest rate changes, company specific risks, investment liquidity risks (turning investments into cash), and global market conditions.

The right level of risk for you will depend on factors such as your age, investment timeframes, where your other assets are invested and how comfortable you are with the possibility of any negative returns.

You should read the important information about the risks of super before making a decision. Go to the Investment Guide available at rest.com.au/pds The material relating to the risks of super may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

05 How we invest your money

Choose from many different paths

Rest offers a range of investment options to suit your financial needs and objectives. You can even choose a combination of options to suit your personal level of risk and return.

The Core Strategy is Rest's default investment option, also known as a MySuper investment option. So if you're a new member to Rest and don't make an investment choice, or if you actively choose to invest all your money in the Core Strategy, you'll be a MySuper member. If you choose not to put all your super into the Core Strategy, you'll be a Choice member. You can switch your investment option online in MemberAccess and in the Rest App.

Super Tip #3

Think about risks, returns and timeframes

Always consider the likely returns, risk, and your investment timeframe when choosing investment options. Use our Investment Choice Solution to help you make the right investment choices. Visit go.rest.com.au/investmentchoicesolution to get started.

You should read the important information about how we invest your money before making a decision. Go to the Investment Guide available at rest.com.au/pds The material relating to how we invest your money may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

Core Strategy Rest Core Strategy is designed for Rest members looking for a balance between risk and return, with a wide asset allocation range.

Aim Achieve a balance of risk and return by investing in both growth assets and defensive assets.

Investment return objective¹ CPI + 3% pa over the long-term (rolling 10 year periods)

Asset allocation² A balance of growth and defensive assets, with a focus on growth assets (can range between 60-75% growth assets) consisting of shares and debt (both Australian and overseas), property, infrastructure, cash and other asset classes.

Minimum suggested timeframe 10+ years

Estimated number of negative annual returns expected over any 20 year period³ 4 to less than 6

Risk band and level³ Risk band 6, High

What this option has returned⁴

(Past performance is not an indication of future performance)

Yearly return (to 30 June)
2019	5.96%
2020	-1.05%
2021	17.43%
2022	-2.37%
2023	9.26%
Five year annualised return	5.60%
Ten year annualised return	7.20%

The Core Strategy has an exposure to the Australian shares asset class which may include companies listed in Australia but are based overseas. In addition, up to 10% of this asset class may be invested in stocks listed on the New Zealand Stock Exchange.

¹ This is what we use to determine asset allocation. It is also used to measure if the investment objective is met. It is not a guaranteed rate of return. Rest does not use the Return Target (shown in the MySuper Product Dashboard) to set the investment return objective.

² The Asset allocation is the benchmark asset allocation for the Core Strategy investment option. The asset allocation may vary year to year within the ranges shown in brackets. We reserve the right to vary the asset allocations, including the benchmarks and ranges.

³ More information about risk band and level and estimated number of negative annual returns expected over any 20 year period can be found in the Investment Guide available at rest.com.au/pds

⁴ Returns are quoted at 30 June each year after fees not directly charged to your account and taxes have been deducted. The returns stated are correct as at 30 June 2023.

06 Fees and costs

Consumer Advisory Warning

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Moneysmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

Please note: The wording in the Consumer Advisory Warning is prescribed by law. However, the statement regarding the possibility of negotiating lower fees does not apply to Rest Super.

Super Tip #4

Know how fees can affect your super

The calculator on the ASIC website at www.moneysmart.gov.au can be used to calculate the effect of fees and costs on your superannuation account balance.

Fees and other costs

The tables on pages 9 and 10 show the main fees and costs for a Rest Super member wholly invested in the Core Strategy which are deducted directly from your account, from investment returns or from the assets of the superannuation entity as a whole. You can use this information to compare the Core Strategy's fees and costs with other superannuation products.

Definitions in relation to fees and costs can be found in the 'Defined fees' section of the Additional Information on Fees and Costs document available at rest.com.au/pds

Any amount charged in excess of that cap must be refunded.

² These fees and costs are based on actual and estimated costs for the financial year ended 30 June 2023 (except performance fees which are generally averaged over the previous 5 financial years). 07 How super is taxed

The tax treatment of super is complex and may change. For further information on your personal circumstances, we recommend you seek advice from an accountant or a licensed financial adviser.

Tax rules on your super

- Rest will typically pay the tax applying to your account directly to the ATO.
- Contributions into your super made from your before-tax salary are generally taxed at 15%. An additional tax of 15% may apply if your combined income and before-tax contributions are over $250,000 - this is referred to as a 'Division 293 tax'.
- Rest will not tax contributions made from after-tax money unless you tell us that you intend to claim a personal tax deduction for the contribution.
- Depending on your income each financial year, you may be eligible to receive a Low Income Superannuation Tax Offset (LISTO) from the Government. The LISTO payment is 15% of the before-tax contributions for a financial year and capped at $500/year. For more info, visit ato.gov.au
- Investment earnings are taxed at a maximum of 15% pa.
- Withdrawals from your account may be taxed if you are under the age of 60.
- Once you turn 60, you can generally withdraw your super tax-free, subject to meeting a condition of release.
- If you go over the caps for your before or after-tax contributions to super (see pages 3 and 4), you will pay extra tax.

Your Tax File Number (TFN) is important

Providing your TFN can help make sure that you don't miss out on money that belongs to you. Without it, by law, we can only accept certain types of contributions and additional tax may apply.

Super Tip #5

Don't pay more tax

Check that we've got your TFN when you join Rest so you don't pay additional tax, and be careful not to exceed your contribution caps as that will mean you could pay extra tax as well. For information about how tax applies to super contributions, investment earnings and withdrawals, and the limits around how much you can contribute to your super, go to rest.com.au/facts

08 Insurance in your super

Protecting your most valuable asset. You.

Life doesn't always go to plan. Insurance can be a smart way to protect yourself financially.

There are different ways you can receive insurance cover when you join Rest. You'll be provided with Default insurance cover automatically if you meet certain eligibility requirements.

If you don't meet these requirements now, but you'd like to have insurance cover, you can choose to have Default insurance cover within 180 days of joining your employer. Otherwise, you can apply for cover at any time but may need to provide health information. As you read through this insurance section, you can refer to the Rest Super Insurance Guide for more information. Go to rest.com.au/pds for a copy.

What is Default cover?

Subject to eligibility, you'll be provided with Income Protection (IP), Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) and Death cover which is made up of:

Age	Default IP	Default TPD	Default Death, incl. Terminal Illness
15-19	5 units	2 units	1 unit
20-25	5 units	2 units	2 units
26-29	5 units	2 units	3 units
30-34	5 units	2 units	4 units
35-69	5 units	2 units	5 units

How does Default cover work?

The total amount of cover you receive changes as you grow older and your insurance needs change. Generally when you're young, your salary and insurance needs are lower. That's why your insurance cover starts lower and increases as you get older and your insurance needs increase, before reducing as you approach retirement.

IP cover helps you meet living expenses if you can't work due to illness or injury for more than 60 days (unless you have chosen a different waiting period). You'll be paid a monthly benefit that comprises an income component which is paid directly to you and a super component paid into your Rest Super account.

TPD cover provides a lump sum payment to help you financially if you're unlikely to ever work again due to illness or injury.

Death cover provides your beneficiaries or estate with a lump sum or (subject to eligibility requirements) a pension if you pass away. It also includes an advance payment of your death benefit if you become terminally ill.

Your Death and TPD cover are linked. This means that any TPD payment made to you will reduce your Death benefit by the amount paid. Please note when a Death benefit is paid, all TPD cover will cease on the date of your death.

Cost of Default cover

The cost of Default cover is calculated by multiplying the number of units you're provided (refer to table on page 11) by the weekly cost per unit (refer to the premium tables starting on page 49 of the Rest Super Insurance Guide) and Waiting Period Factor for IP (refer to page 21 of the Rest Super Insurance Guide).

Default cover - premiums and benefits (IP Benefit Period 5 years, Waiting Period 60 days)

Age Last Birthday	Amount covered per month (IP)	Weekly premium (IP)	Amount covered (TPD)	Weekly premium (TPD)	Amount covered (Death)	Weekly premium (Death)	Total premium per week
15	$400	$0.05	$17,200	$0.02	$8,600	$0.02	$0.09
18	$400	$0.10	$28,600	$0.04	$14,300	$0.03	$0.17
20	$1,200	$0.30	$28,600	$0.06	$50,000	$0.14	$0.50
30	$2,125	$1.90	$28,600	$0.22	$267,600	$1.68	$3.80
40	$2,125	$4.65	$28,600	$0.72	$396,500	$5.85	$11.22
50	$2,000	$9.60	$28,600	$1.48	$316,500	$10.95	$22.03
60	$1,975	$9.00	$23,000	$3.44	$68,500	$5.55	$17.99

The table above shows a range of cover and premiums for eligible members across certain ages. The weekly cost per unit of Default cover can be in the range of:

For Death cover: $0.02 - $2.56, For TPD cover: $0.01 - $1.97, For IP cover: $0.01 - $2.91

To find out this information for every age, please refer to the premium tables in the Rest Super Insurance Guide starting from page 49.

Paying for your insurance cover

Insurance premiums will be deducted from your account balance each month. This means that unless you opt out of the Default cover or cancel it, the cost of that cover will be deducted from your Rest Super account. It's important to ensure you have enough money in your account to cover these premiums. If your account does not have sufficient funds to pay for your insurance, you will lose your cover.

What makes up my IP cover benefit?

The income component is up to 77% of your Pre-Disability Income and the super component is 12% of the income component, subject to a maximum of your sum insured. The income component may be reduced due to income received from other sources, as described in the Rest Super Insurance Guide.

Commencement of Default cover

Choosing cover

If you're an eligible member, aged 15 to 69, you can choose Default cover within 180 days of starting a new job. You can do this online at rest.com.au/memberaccess

If you're under age 25 and choose Default cover, cover will commence when we receive your next SG contribution from your employer. If you are age 25 or over when you choose cover, cover will commence as long as you have sufficient funds in your super account to pay premiums.

If you choose some Default cover (but not all Default cover), you will not receive any further automatic Default cover when you become eligible. For example, if you choose Death cover now, you won't automatically receive TPD and IP cover later when you turn 25, have a balance of at least $6,000 and make a subsequent SG contribution.

Cover automatically or by applying for it

If you don't choose Default cover within 180 days of starting a new job, you are eligible for Default cover automatically once you are age 25 or over and have a balance of $6,000 or more.

Once you meet these eligibility requirements, cover will commence automatically when we receive the next mandatory employer contribution into your account (as long as you haven't had the cover previously in your Rest account).

Alternatively, you can apply for insurance at any time, subject to policy terms and conditions. You will need to login to MemberAccess at rest.com.au/memberaccess and click on the insurance tab or complete the 'Rest Super Insurance application' form which may require you to complete a health check.

A special offer to increase your cover

If you choose Default cover or receive Default cover automatically, you can increase your cover without the need to provide health information by taking up the special offer. This is only available for 90 days from the date of our letter to you confirming your Default cover has started.

Opting-out of Default cover, changing or cancelling your existing cover

If you don't want any Default cover now or in the future, you are able to opt-out of Default cover. If you have IP cover, you can change the duration of your IP Benefit Period or alter the Waiting Period. You can also reduce or cancel each cover type, or all of your cover in your Rest account at any time.

Before you change or cancel your insurance cover, please consider your needs carefully.

For help choosing the right cover for your needs, visit go.rest.com.au/insurance-explained

If you'd like to opt-out of Default cover, change or cancel your cover, you can contact us on 1300 300 778. You can also change or cancel your cover online at rest.com.au/memberaccess

Increasing your cover

If Default cover isn't enough for your needs, you can increase your cover by applying for:

IP cover – up to $30,000 per month plus Default cover (subject to your income)

TPD cover – up to $5 million plus Default cover

Death cover – up to any amount.

To apply, you'll need to complete the 'Rest Super Insurance application' form, which may require you to complete a health check.

Otherwise, just by answering a few questions, the other options available to increase your cover (subject to limits, conditions and approval) include:

- Transferring your insurance to Rest – You can transfer any existing IP, TPD and/or Death cover you have with another super fund or insurer to Rest Super.
- Applying for extra cover at important times in your life – Our Life Event cover lets you increase your cover when you reach a key milestone.

Any cover you apply for will be a maximum of 5 units of Default cover (rounded up to the next unit) then Voluntary cover (rounded up to the next unit).

The cost of Default and Voluntary cover is deducted from your account balance each month, and is based on your occupation and age (and for IP, your Benefit Period and Waiting Period). To calculate the cost of cover, follow the steps on page 34 of the Rest Super Insurance Guide.

Cooling off period

You have a 14-day cooling off period, from when we tell you that your cover has started, to decide if you don't want the insurance cover and we will refund any premiums charged to your account within this time. After 14 days you can still cancel your cover, however, the premiums will be charged until the date we receive your request.

What happens to my cover if I stop working?

It's important to contact us if you stop working for an extended period of time.

While your cover will continue, the IP benefit paid for a claim considers income earned from working over the last 12 months. So, if you stop working, it could affect the amount of, or the ability to receive, a benefit payment.

You can see an example of how we calculate your cover based on the Pre-Disability Income under the 'Types of cover in detail' section in the Rest Super Insurance Guide.

Keep your insurance switched on

Your insurance will 'switch off' if there's no contribution to your super for 13 continuous months and you don't elect to keep your insurance.

Your insurance cover can be turned on again (reinstated) by:

- you or your employer contributing to your account within 28 days of the cancellation; or
- telling us you would like to keep it within 60 days of the cancellation. Go online at rest.com.au/memberaccess and select the insurance tab, or complete the 'Election to reinstate insurance cover' form available from rest.com.au/forms

You will need sufficient funds in your account to pay for any premiums owed before your cover is reinstated.

You should read the important information about insurance including eligibility, cancellation, when cover ends, and conditions and exclusions of insurance before making a decision. This information may affect your entitlement to insurance cover. Go to the Rest Super Insurance Guide available at rest.com.au/pds

You can refer to the Key Fact Sheet for a summary of the features of the Default cover provided in Rest Super at go.rest.com.au/superkeyfacts

The material relating to insurance may change between the time when you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

09 How to open an account

- 1 If you're joining Rest through your employer, they'll apply on your behalf.
- 2 You can join Rest quickly and easily by scanning the QR code, going online at rest.com.au/joinrest or by completing the application form in this PDS.
- 3 Make sure you've read this PDS and other important information that forms part of this PDS. You can also review the Target Market Determination (TMD) at go.rest.com.au/tmds which outlines the types of members Rest Super is designed for.
- 4 We'll send you a welcome pack with your member number. Use this to keep tabs on your super 24/7 in the Rest App and online in MemberAccess.

- 5 Important disclosures (including your annual statements and exit statements, significant event notices, and confirmations of transactions), are provided electronically to your nominated email address or mobile number or by Rest making them available through the Rest Website, MemberAccess, or the Rest App, as determined by Rest. If you would like to receive paper copies, you can do so by phoning 1300 300 778.
- 6 If you're already a Rest member from a previous job, just let your new employer know your member number through the 'Choose Rest - Fund nomination' form available at rest.com.au/forms so they can pay your super into your Rest account.

If you change your mind

You have 14 days from the date we receive your application to cancel it if you change your mind. You'll need to let us know in writing, and you won't be able to cancel your application if you've exercised any rights in relation to your account. These cooling-off rights don't apply if you joined through your employer. If you do cancel, you'll only be charged applicable government taxes. Investment returns (positive or negative) will be applied to your account. We'll transfer your account balance to a complying super fund of your choice.

Partial withdrawals

If you withdraw part of your account balance, you may need to leave at least $6,000 in your account, otherwise your account may be transferred to the ATO if it becomes inactive. To keep your insurance cover, you'll need to ensure you have enough money in your account to pay future premiums.

Temporary residents

If you are a temporary resident, and not an Australian or New Zealand citizen, there are limited conditions under which you may withdraw your super. After you have departed Australia and your temporary visa has expired, you can lodge a Departing Australia superannuation payment (DASP) claim with your super fund or the ATO. If you don't claim your super within six months, your super will be transferred to the ATO as unclaimed monies. You will then be able to claim your money from the ATO. Under relief provided by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC), Rest will not notify you or send you an exit statement if we transfer your super to the ATO. To find out more, visit the DASP page on the ATO website at ato.gov.au

 - if this form has not been completed correctly, my request may not be accepted;
